22-Cent Tax Reduction For Elementary Schools

A windfall to taxpayers in the form of an unexpected 22.3 cent tax rate slash was announced Wednesday by Jefferson Elementary School district assistant superintendent David Shapiro.

The district realized the substantial cut because of a ceiling the state recently established on repayment of local and state loans.

The 1956-57 tax rate of $2.29, which was expected to remain the same for the coming fiscal year, was cut to $2.07, meaning a tax savings of from $6 to $7 a year for the average homeowner.

Shapiro explained that the new legislation places a limit on the tax rate of 45 cents which can be paid to redeem local bonds and state loans. The district must first pay its local obligations, after which a tax is levied to repay the state, but only up to the 45-cent limit.

This year the district will spend 36 cents for interest and redemption of local bonds, meaning that approximately nine cents will go to the state, as against 27 cents levied last year for this purpose.

The legislation does, however, extend the "forgiveness" of state debt period for 10 years, meaning the district's obligation will be outstanding for that many more years.

SF Realtors are preparing an official beef before the real estate commission on Daly City's practice of docking any and all businessmen for an $18 business license, even if they only have one dealing a year here.

Said one complainant, "They want to collect $18 from you just for listing one house in Daly City. If you don't sell it, you're out $18."

He pondered a parallel: "If they can charge for a license, how about San Francisco doctors and attorneys who might have patients or clients here?"

A very good question.

Insiders are wondering why FRANK INGERSOLL, long-time recreation department worker and for a period temporary rec director, has "quit" his job.

Some say he was canned.

Daly City police were called one a.m. this week to investigate a report of a man chasing a barefoot young woman on the Alameda boulevard overpass.

Four officers responded to the scene, but were unable to spot the participants in the idyllic morning pursuit.

The "Klutch Kings" won more bouquets this week to add to their garden of praise.

"Klutch Kings," a group of Daly City youngsters devoted to helping stranded motorists, received profuse thanks this week from Mrs. NORMA GARDNER of San Francisco, who told how the youngsters attempted to get her car started when she was stranded at a local restaurant. "They were most courteous and saw to it that my car was escorted to a nearby service station for aid."

600 Children Will Attend Half Sessions

Twenty-two classrooms in the Jefferson Elementary School district will be on double sessions when school opens September 10, Superintendent H. Z. Weibel told trustees Wednesday night.

The problem will be alleviated in mid-year, however, if construction on the Vista Grande and Vista Del Mar schools does not fall behind schedule, he indicated. Some Vista Grande classrooms are scheduled to be ready in October, while Vista Mar completion deadline is February.

Double sessions are scheduled for Olympia, Thornton and Woodrow Wilson schools. Approximately 600 children will be on the split schedule. Most of them will be routed to the new schools when they are completed.

6 Checks In 2 Hours; 6 Too Many

Robert Lawrel Bennett, unemployed marine engineer, spread a lot of business around Westlake shopping center Saturday in the form of six checks totalling $71.88.

Bennett, 39, occupant of a Mission street motel, had a share the wealth attitude, but his bank account did not warrant the liberal use of his signature in the two-hour spree.

Officer George Brooks picked up Bennett at 7:30, two hours after the engineer had spread worthless paper among six local firms before one merchant became suspicious.

Police said Bennett's itinerary was as follows:

Westlake Chinese Foods, $15 check, $4 purchase; Crown Drug, $10 check, 75-cent purchase; Seymour's Paint, $10 check, 85-cent purchase; Westlake Delicatessen, $25 check, $4 purchase; Westlake Hardware, $10 check, $1 purchase.

Bennett, who said he needed the money to feed his family—a wife and four children—reached an impasse at Westlake Medical Pharmacy, where the proprietor refused to accept a $10 check, allowing Bennett to make the paper payment only up to $1.88, amount of the purchase.

Bennett, who had an earlier Daly City check complaint against him dropped after he made restitution, was charged with petty theft.

Municipal Judge Thomas L. Bocci, frowning on Bennett's profuse handwriting Tuesday, sentenced him to 20 days suspended jail sentence, $100 fine and ordered him to make restitution on all the checks.

CITY MINORITY REPORT

'Administrative Work On Budget Nil'

The city council formally passed a $1,315,266 budget for 1957-58 and adopted a $1.48 tax rate Monday, but not before the one dissenting member had severely denounced the city administration.

Councilman Michael De Bernardi, presenting what he entitled a "minority opinion" on the budget, read from a prepared statement which claimed that "the council has been very poorly informed and the administrative planning nil."

De Bernardi said the budget "does nothing but build and project to build a larger bureaucracy."

The councilman placed particular emphasis on what he termed "complete absence of planning" in the water department budget.

Juggled Rate
He declared that the tax rate had been juggled in order to stay at the $1.48 level, at the expense of library and park levies, which were cut to bolster the general fund.

He said that, "I want it clearly understood that my stand would necessitate an increase in the tax rate and a complete re-evaluation of the budget. But I contend that the people of Daly City would get their tax dollars worth. And future generations would not be paying for administrative mistakes."

Mayor Replies
Mayor Joseph Verducci had something to say about De Bernardi's attack. Expressing what he termed the "majority opinion," the mayor said, "We've done as good a job as possible with the tools we have. The state has figures which show that our cost of government per capita is one of the lowest in the state."

Verducci maintained that "good administration will guarantee us the best service."

The council postponed action on a five per cent pay increase for all classified employees, pending what is supposed to be taken recommendation from the personnel board. Verducci said the council would still be able to act on the measure in two weeks and make the pay hike effective September 1.

Colma Awards Bid
For Jewell Avenue
Colma town council Wednesday awarded O. C. Jones & Sons contract for improvement of Jewell avenue.

They submitted low proposal of $6635.05, about $600 above engineer's estimate.

Recreation Director Dee Van Nest told councilmen Monday that the supervision of parks and playgrounds closed down last week because it was the end of the regular 10-week program.

The council had expressed surprise earlier to learn that there would be no park personnel at the recreation facilities after last Friday.

Van Nest said that closing of the parks followed the regular program outlined earlier in the year. The parks will be staffed with recreation personnel again after September 16.

Recreation commissioner Edmund Cavanaugh took exception to Van Nest's remarks, claiming the commission knew nothing about the closing down of recreation activities for three weeks. "We should do something about this so we won't have to close down this long," he said.

Discussion was also held on the selection of park sites in the Doelger and McKee lands and Mayor Joseph Verducci instructed Van Nest to coordinate preliminary study with the builders and Jefferson Elementary School district, which has proposed that park sites be located adjacent to school property.

Dime Slot Machine Pays Off $100

—But Not To Owner

Frank C. Sadilek, 23-year-old delivery man, delivered a piece of merchandise to the state of California and received a 30-day suspended jail sentence and $100 fine in municipal court this week for his indiscretion.

Police arrived at Sadilek's home, 1067 Hanover street, Saturday to find a 10-cent slot machine, which Sadilek said he had brought in from Nevada years ago.

Police said the "one-armed bandit" was an ancient relic but was in working order.

Sadilek was found guilty of possession of an illegal gambling device. The machine has been impounded by police.

'North County Victory Despite Political Coup,' Assemblyman Reveals

City Attorney Frank Blum was today named judge for the newly-created fifth superior court.

Municipal Judge Thomas L. Bocci, long considered top candidate for the upper court bench, was denied recommendation by the State Bar Association after "a high government official" allegedly "intervened."

Last Thursday Bocci's appointment to the superior court was virtually "all wrapped up," after the governor had reportedly recommended selection of Bocci. Insiders said Blum would succeed Bocci on the municipal court bench.

Snag Develops
Observers suspected a snag earlier this week when Governor Goodwin Knight named several superior court judges in other counties but failed to act on the San Mateo county position.

In a statement issued today announcing his withdrawal as a candidate for superior court, Bocci declared that he had first been approved by the State Bar association board of governors, but that "a high state official outside the governor's office" forced the matter to be re-opened.

He said most of the opposition to his candidacy came from southern San Mateo county lawyers, "who have moved heaven and earth to defeat me." It was they who approached the board of governors of the bar association to exert influence through the "high official," Bocci claimed.

Bocci denied the principal reason he did not win the appointment was because his name had been listed in the San Francisco telephone book as an attorney, leading to accusations that he was practicing law while on the bench. "They further argued," Bocci continued, "that in maintaining my home phone under the category of justice of peace for marriage purposes I was casting reflection on the dignity of the bench."

Bocci denied "categorically" that he had practiced law during his term of judge or that he "impugned the dignity of the bench." He said his only crime was "negligence in failing to remove the two phone listings."

Eliminations

Orientation Days Next Week For High Schoolers
"Orientation Day" for some 800 Westmoor and Jefferson High school freshmen and new students will be held next week.

The Westmoor orientation program will be held on Tuesday while Jefferson will host the newcomers the following day. The sessions start at 9 a.m. and will be finished shortly after noon.

The students will be briefed on school procedures and given a general outline of what their educational day will be like. The youngsters will also be taken on a tour of their respective schools.

In addition, a battery of three tests will be given all the neophyte high schoolers. These tests are taken to determine placement in classes.

Regular bus service will be provided on the two days for Coastsides, Westlake, Brisbane and Bayshore areas.

Buses will depart at 8 a.m. High school starts at both plants on Tuesday, September 10, at 3:15 a.m. The school days extend to 2:45 p.m., a sharp contrast from last year when Jefferson and Westmoor students attended at the same school on a "double sessions" basis.

Pioneer Family Lashes Schools For Taking Land

Owners of land sought for the Margaret Pauline Brown school site off Edgemoor road in Colma will "resist all the way" efforts of the Jefferson Elementary School district to buy their 1.4 acres of land, their attorney told the school board Wednesday.

Richard Lyons, appearing for Giovanni Schenone and his sons, 355 Pierce street, said a "negotiated price is out of the question," meaning the district will have to go to condemnation proceedings to acquire the land.

The school district has three sets of plans for the M.P.B. school site, and all three include use of a piece of the Schenone land.

The piece of Schenone property to be taken amounts to about one third of their total land. The 1.4 acre piece will be used to augment a seven acre parcel the district intends to purchase from Zita Corporation.

The senior Schenone, member of a pioneer Italian family, charged that the board was "killing my property." He shouted angrily at the board, complete with violent gestures, before departing hastily with his son.

Schenone and Lyons both maintained that there is plenty of available property nearby, some of which is owned by Michael Callan, school board trustee. Callan was not present at the meeting.

Lyons said he would "have plenty to say in court" about this matter.

Joseph Gregory Wins Baking Award

Joseph A. Gregory Jr., 1069 South Mayfair, was one of the three baking graduates of Oklahoma State Tech, Okmulgee, Okla., to receive baking industry awards for excellence in baking techniques.

Gregory, who completed the 16 month training course in three semesters, was one of the leading baking students in all phases of his work.

In addition to the baking industry award, Gregory received the student council outstanding student award which is given on the basis of scholarship, leadership and achievement.

Blum Named To Superior Court Over Judge Bocci

the logical contenders became southern district Municipal Judge J. A. Branson, Menlo Park attorney James O'Keefe, both of whom had endorsement of the San Mateo County Bar association, and Blum.

Blum was the choice of Gov. Knight, and the state bar upheld the appointment.

Active in the Republican party, 45-year-old Blum has served here as city attorney for eight years and has his own private law practice.

He lives at 33 Dorchester drive, Daly City, with his wife, Lois, and three children.

His appointment takes effect on September 11 and the court will probably be established at that time in temporary headquarters until the permanent facility in South San Francisco is completed.

Blum's appointment runs until November, 1958, when he will have to run for election to the post on a county-wide ballot.

First In Century
Blum's appointment marks the first time in San Mateo county's 100-year history that a northern San Mateo county man has been named to the superior court bench.

Assemblyman Louis Francis, instrumental in securing the Blum appointment although he had at first boosted Bocci for the job, said Blum's selection was a "definite victory for the north county."

Francis confirmed Bocci's statement that opposition to the municipal judge came from factions in the south county. "There's no question about it," the legislator declared. He termed the action against Bocci a "vicious political coup. While Bocci was my first recommendation, I still feel we have accomplished the same purpose in placing a north county man on the bench." Francis had backed Blum as Bocci's replacement to the municipal court.

Temporary Quarters
The assemblyman said that appointment of a fifth superior court judge would assure immediate establishment of the new upper court department in San Mateo county.

He indicated that Blum would probably have to hold sessions in temporary headquarters, possibly even in Daly City, until the court room is constructed in South San Francisco.

Bocci, who will come up for re-election next year, said he was requested not to reveal information about the "intervention" from high places, but felt he must, "in view of the circumstances and background of this matter, advise the public."

ordinances deal with establishing license fees for vending machine operators.

Fee for all coin-operated music devices and food dispensing machines will be $36 a year, while a license of $100 will be charged for each pin-ball machine and other amusement devices. Penny vending machines will be taxed $3 per year.

The fourth ordinance raises water connection charge from $36 to $50.

Also adopted was an ordinance establishing fire zones within the city. It is designed to lower stringent building requirements for certain type commercial establishments.

A fifth fund raising measure was introduced. It calls for raising the annual used car license fee from $50 to $100 and raising the application fee for auto dealers from $100 to $200.

NEW EPISCOPAL CHURCH GROUND TO BE BROKEN

Another milestone in Westlake history will be reached at 4 p.m. Friday, September 6, when ground will be broken at Southgate avenue and Bradley drive for St. Martin's Episcopal church building, the third church to be erected in the community during the past two years.

Two building fund campaigns yielded $30,000 of the $70,000 necessary to complete the main hall, which is expected to be ready by Christmas this year.

"6 minutes on duty...cuts my wife's workday by hours"

San Francisco Mounted Policeman, Julius Long, earns enough in 6 minutes to run a houseful of appliances for 24 hours

Heat, lights and running 28 appliances hardly makes a dent in the Long's family budget. Mr. Long figures it takes him just 6 minutes on duty to pay for all this gas and electricity. "At these low prices we can afford to give our appliances a real work-out, and have more time to enjoy things like T.V."

This is another way Californians live better. With gas and electricity so cheap, you can afford to let appliances do more of your housework. For even though the cost of living has doubled in the last 20 years, a unit of P. G. and E. gas and electricity costs you about 1/2 less than it did back in 1936.

A CITY IN EMBRYONIC STAGE

We note with some interest the embryonic development of the North Coastside into what soon may become a full-blown incorporated city to be known as "Pacifica."

Backers of the proposed city this week issued a "blueprint" for incorporation which probably brings many a smicker from experience-hardened city politicians.

Among the 16 recommendations for the city is a suggested 13-cent per $100 tax rate. Most councilmen would dearly love to suggest a 10-cent tax rate and have citizens believe they were serious.

Another of the lofty proposals is that "the city should set up a planned program, to make sure that developers provide adequately for parks, playgrounds and schools before building permits are issued."

A consummation devoutly to be wished, but we'd have to see it to believe it.

Among other things, the incorporation backers want, "better transportation, development of beaches, a freeway plan fair to all, emergency hospital, lower PG&E rates, speed-up on coast high schools, round-the-clock police protection, comprehensive recreation plan, rural atmosphere, city manager government, sound economic growth, light industry, and an active promotion campaign to spur Coastside growth.

All of this, of course, at a 13-cent tax rate.

The "blueprint" for Pacifica is a very saleable piece of merchandise and if taken for gospel, will most certainly result in victory for incorporationists.

We imagine if Daly City had a chance to do it all over again, we would find just such an exemplary statement of purposes and objectives.

Should incorporation for the Coastside win voter approval, it will be interesting in a year or two to look back on the "blueprint" for Pacifica and see just how closely the city comes to living up to it.

If they can buy all that livin' for 13 cents a $100, you'll see a mass exodus to Pacifica.

RAYMOND WHITNEY, coast-side and north county representative on the College of San Mateo board of trustees, congratulates Kenneth Van Gundy, district manager of the P. G. & E. upon his accepting chairmanship of the citizens' committee which seeks passage of the $5,000,000 college bond issue on October 15. The ballot measure provides for a unified central college campus and for the purchase of a north county college site for future development.

San Mateo JC Pushes Bond Vote

A district-wide citizens' committee with over 1100 volunteer members will actively campaign for an overwhelming "Yes" vote for a unified College of San Mateo campus at the polls here on Tuesday, October 15.

Kenneth W. Van Gundy, civic leader and district manager of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, in accepting the chairmanship of the committee this week, said that public-spirited citizens throughout the college district are enthusiastically lending their support to the October 15 ballot proposal.

Approval of the $5,000,000 college bond issue has already been indicated by labor unions, community groups, business organizations, parent-teacher associations, veteran leaders, civic officials and homeowners," Van Gundy reported.

In addition to financing a permanent central location for the county's only college, the bond issue also includes funds to purchase a north county site for future development of a second college to provide educational facilities for that

COUNTER OFFER FOR S.P. SCHOOL SITE ACCEPTED

Jefferson High School district's counter offer of $24,750 was accepted by the Fahey sisters this week, enabling the district to augment its Sharp Park school site by 10 acres.

The board's original offer of $22,500 was refused.

In other matters affecting the Sharp Park school, trustees turned down Architect Mario Ciampi's request to have outside consultants draft educational specifications for the new plant. Trustees decided the educational needs were similar to those of Westmoor and could be prepared by the district staff.

Charles Lee was authorized to proceed with test boring on the site for a fee of $1200.

On the status of Westmoor, trustees learned that almost all of the classroom facilities will be turned over to the district this week. Projects that may not be ready for school opening include the Little Theater, gymnasium, and bleachers for the playing field.

Board authorized purchase of $3145 worth of lockers and two incinerators at cost of $2585 each for the new school.

This Wednesday morning the board will make a preliminary inspection of the Westmoor plant and a tour of the Linda Mar site will be held on September 7.

Next Tuesday the district's $1,135,000 in general obligation bonds will be sold. Low bid is expected to be near four per cent interest.

Veterans News

Veterans are urged to look into their GI insurance policies. Lapsed policies or policies which have been borrowed on may be brought into good standing if the veteran will look into them immediately.

The Service Officer of any veteran organization will be glad to assist you. Be sure that everything is in order so that in event any unforeseen event happens your family is fully protected. Don't just think it is alright, be sure.

Home loans and policies should also be made out in the best possible manner to protect the interests of the veteran as well as his family. Home loan policies are tightening so be sure yours are without loopholes or dispute.

Many insurance problems can only be answered with "it all depends." Be sure to check on your policies periodically so that you and your dependants will always be protected.

NEWS ITEMS:

The American War Mothers will hold their regular Ward Party at Ft. Miley Hospital, Thursday evening, Sept. 5th. The patients always look forward to an enjoyable evening.

Lake Merced Unit 9921, VFW, will hold a Carnival, Saturday, September 14th, at 714 White Street, Colma. Hour 4 to 12 p.m. Not only is a good time anticipated but the funds from this affair will be used for hospital work and the child welfare programs. There will be games, refreshments and dancing.

With vacations almost over many activities will start soon after the first of September.

Several delegates from the 26th District (San Mateo County), American Legion, will attend the National Convention to be held in Atlantic City, September 15th through 21st. Following the Convention the Annual Pilgrimage will be made to Europe.

All veterans organizations will participate in holding an outdoor barbecue at Palo Alto Hospital on September 12th, at 11 a.m. The patients look forward to these affairs and enjoy them very much. Members from this area of the American Legion and VFW will assist in this program.

Idle Chatter

We've got news for them, but of course it will make absolutely no impression. During our ten years of attending the opera, we have sat in all sections except the boxes, and

CONGRATULATIONS IN ORDER — Chief Gunners Mate Joseph Bestresky shakes hands with Donald Weisner, recent enlistee in the U. S. Navy. Weisner had the distinction of scoring 100 per cent on both mental qualification tests, becoming the first applicant to accomplish this feat at the local recruiting station.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brown

In less than a month the thirty-fifth annual season of the San Francisco Opera Company will open with a performance of "Turandot," so this is as good a week as any to discuss opera in general, with particular emphasis upon public attitude toward it.

In doing the reference work on last week's column, we dug back into the 1923 files of the old Literary Digest, and couldn't resist thumbing through the bound copies, to see what people were thinking and talking about thirty-five years ago. Our eyes were caught by the word "opera" so we read one article. Then we reread it. It was so preposterous, we couldn't believe it.

Legislative Assinity

It seems that in the latter part of 1923 the State of Georgia passed legislation to tax opera performances, and one legislator, mercifully not identified, was quoted as saying, "Let us tax the crowd that attends grand opera, the luxury-rolling, silk-rattling, diamond-wearing, monkey and poodle-dog nursing and abbreviated-apparel-wearing gang!"

We don't know why Georgia passed this bit of legislative assinity, nor do we know what impelled this representative of the people to make his pitch on a level obviously intended to cater to the class hatreds that brewed along Tobacco Road. Maybe a resident of Peachtree street had snubbed him that day.

But this we do know—many people, while possibly not going along with this gentleman in entirety (after all, who owns a monkey?), nonetheless have deeply rooted opinions as to who goes to the opera and why. They have never attended a performance in their lives, and never intend to, but they know that uncultured hair and sneakers are the badge of the opera-lover, while mink and décolletage are there "to be seen"; they know that opera-goers' interest in opera decreases as the price of the ticket increases, and they know that the balconies listen in rapt silence and the orchestra seats chat or sleep.

Idol Chatter

We've got news for them, but of course it will make absolutely no impression. During our ten years of attending the opera, we have sat in all sections except the boxes, and

Westlake Grad Knocks Navy Exams For A Loop

Donald M. Weisner of Westlake entered the Navy Monday with the distinction of being the first enlistee to score 100 per cent on both mental qualification tests at the local recruiting station, 6705 Mission street.

Weisner, former senior class president and outstanding athlete at Jefferson High school, scored 100 per cent on both the Armed Forces Qualification Test and Navy Applicant Qualification Test.

Chief Gunners Mate Joseph Bestresky of the local recruiting station termed the scores attained by 18-year-old Weisner as "indeed unusual." Weisner is the only enlistee who has accomplished this feat since the opening of the local recruiting station in September, 1955.

Some enlistees at San Francisco recruiting stations have run up perfect scores on one of the two tests, but never on both.

The youth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Weisner of 49 Lake Forest drive. He has signed up for four years in the Electronics Field Seaman program and is guaranteed technical school training upon completion of "boot" training at San Diego. He plans on volunteering for submarine training and duty later in the service.

Weisner, in addition to being class president and captain of the track squad, was an outstanding football player on the Jefferson eleven. He also attended the University of California for one year, where he received his freshman letter as a member of the rowing crew.

The senior Weisner is credit manager for the California Packing Corp.

FARMERS

Farmers buy 17 per cent of the tires sold in the United States, 20 per cent of the batteries, and about 20 per cent of all the motor gasoline, according to the National Automobile Club.

you can believe us when we say that idle chatter is not a characteristic exclusive with orchestra seat holders. The worst situation we ever had was in one of the less expensive locations where a woman insisted upon bringing her son (much too young) and giving him a play by play account.

Why some people attend any theatrical performance, we'll never know, but we do know they always sit behind us.

PICTURED ABOVE is the first three story apartment building, now under construction, ever built in Westlake. Located on Park Plaza drive, the $400,000 building will house 41 apartments, featuring all-electric kitchens with built in oven and ranges, it was announced by John Doelger, vice president and general manager for the builders.

Letters To The Editor

Cites References For School Info

Dear Editor:

Because of the number of calls I have received concerning sources for securing information on schools and have been unable to take the time to look up all the addresses for each person who has called, I wonder if you would be so kind as to help out by printing a list of addresses that people may write to for all kinds of information:

U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Washington, 25, D. C.—I believe all publications should be referred to publications services section to procure material applicable to the matter about which an individual wishes information.

Your representative or senator in Washington can also get publications for you, or you can get reports from the various House and Senate committees on all the hearings.

Recreation Chief Cites Paper's Role In Rec Program

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

May I take this opportunity on behalf of the entire staff of the parks and recreation department and the members of the park and recreation commission, to personally thank you for the excellent coverage which was afforded the first joint city-school recreation program during the 1957 season.

Your publications have afforded a great deal of space and a great many pictures to the total program this year. Without your help and cooperation, it of course, would not be possible to put the message which we have concerning our many activities before the public.

Our special gratitude goes to Roy Hurlbert and Monte Dayton for their loyalty and untiring effort in the field of journalism.

Sincerely,
Dee R. Van Nest,

Daly City Youth Seeks Correspondents

Dear Sir,

Being a former Daly City resident, I would very much like to hear from some of my classmates.

I graduated with the class of '56. I was student body vice president my last year in school.

I'm stationed at Spangdahlem, Germany, and it's really lonesome not hearing from your friends. I have two years and five months left over here.

So, if it would not be too much trouble for you, would it be possible for you to put into the paper that I would like hearing from some of my classmates?

Sincerely yours,
Ronald F. Bygum

'Thanks' Extended By Cub Scout Pack

Gentlemen:

We wish to thank THE RECORD and especially Monte Dayton for the pictures and other publicity which you gave our Cub Scout Pack 244 paper drive.

The people of Daly City were most generous in contributing to our drive, which has made it a tremendous success.

Again may we say "many thanks" for your fine cooperation.

Sincerely yours,
By JERRY MANINI
Chairman, Cub Scout Pack 244

Women Ask Dance Program For Youth

A group of Daly City women, led by Mrs. L. B. Rhodes, 62 Frankfort street, have asked the recreation department to provide a program of dance instruction for children from kindergarten age through junior high.

Mrs. Rhodes pointed out that such a system has been "worked out very effectively in the South San Francisco recreation program."

She said the program could be co-sponsored by the city and school district as an extra-curricular activity.

SMJC Moves To Acquire New Site

At a special meeting Thursday, the board of trustees of the San Mateo Junior College district unanimously voted to authorize the district attorney to proceed with necessary legal steps for eminent domain proceedings to acquire the Barneson Heights Campus site. This action followed the presentation of a resolution prepared by the district attorney, and the report of John Blume, engineer, describing the site as an excellent one and defining the 95 acres as the most efficient building area for the college. Daniel Bushnell, representative of John Warneke, district architect, concurred on the efficiency of the Barneson Heights site.

The board unanimously approved the organization of a citizens committee for the district, headed by Kenneth Van Gundy, to inform the public on the bond issue to be voted on at the October 15 College of San Mateo election. Mrs. Emory Morris, secretary; Carl Ward, treasurer; and David Bohannon, financial chairman complete the executive committee of the citizens committee to which representatives of each town in the district will be announced.

B'nai Israel Gains In Membership

The goal of 40 new members which Congregation B'nai Israel set for itself back in June is nearing achievement. Mrs. Molly Bresler, of the membership committee, reports that so far 32 members have been signed up. Every effort will be made to secure the additional eight which will mean fulfillment of the quota. Membership dues include seats for the High Holidays as well as use of religious school facilities for the remainder of the year. Recently signed as new members were Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Niberg of Westlake, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Goodman of San Francisco.

Morton Dobrow and Paul Lichtman will be at the synagogue, 67 Los Banos avenue, Daly City, every Sunday morning from 10 a.m. till 12 noon to handle seat requests.

Rabbi Solomon A. Shore has chosen a very provocative title for his sermon at the Sabbath evening service this Friday at 8:15 p.m. It is entitled "One Hour With The Lord" and promises to be both inspiring and interesting.

LOOKING over the Emmy award (from the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences) won by the Ampex Videotape Recorder are Dr. Earl Herald of Westlake, THE RECORD TV columnist Mona Baker, Harold P. See, general manager of KRON TV, and Alexander M. Poniatoff, founder and board chairman of Ampex Corporation. The four gathered around the revolutionary television tape unit following a special program produced by KRON-TV which compared matching live and taped TV performances for the first time in Northern California. KRON-TV, first independent TV station in California to order the new machines, will receive its first two VTR's by midwinter according to Ampex officials.

DELAYED 'LIVE' TV

Dr. Earl Herald Hosts Videotape Demonstration

by Mona Baker
With sirens wide open a fire engine came rushing around the corner of fifth and Mission recorded "live" by television cameras... within a few minutes over the same program was a taped "repeat" of the scene as a demonstration for the use of the Ampex Videotape Recorder, and the dramatic opening for a special public service program "Sight and Sound" over KRON-TV.
With Westlake resident, Dr. Earl Herald, star of "Science in Action," as host the program traced the history of sight and sound from the earliest days of Thomas Edison to present times with this "recording miracle" which was awarded an "Emmy" this spring by the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. Among the special guests on the show was Alexander M. Poniatoff, founder and board chairman of Ampex Corporation.

Following the show a special closed circuit telecast was held in KRON-TV studios with members of the press individually interviewing General Manager Harold P. See and Program Director Doug Ellison concerning the station's future plans for their recorder. Within a few minutes they watched their interviews played back in a further demonstration of what the Ampex Videotape Recorder can do. The recorded telecast was remarkably clear and lifelike.
What does videotape mean to you the viewer? One of the most important advantages is that it is so much clearer than present kinescopes, and equally important, its ability to be replayed immediately without requiring further processing.

Manager See said that local "live" shows may be taped during regular working days and put on the air at better viewing times. Program Director Ellison said that KRON-TV will be doing more remotes. On a remote telecast they can record the event and have it on the air, almost before the equipment returns to the garage.
The story of Ampex Corporation located in Redwood City is almost a miracle in itself. In talking to Mr. Poniatoff, he told us that the company which began approximately ten years ago with three employees, now has a staff of over 2000, and a backlog of orders for the new equipment of over two years. Also he said they recently signed a contract with a German firm for European distribution.

'JOY' New Group For Judea Youth

A new high school youth organization is being formed at Temple Judea to cater to the religious, social and cultural needs of boys 15 to 19 and girls 14 to 18, according to Mrs. Arnold Beinert, president of Temple Judea Sisterhood.
This organization will be known as the Judean Organization of Youth club, or the JOY club. Membership in the newly founded organization will be open to all Jewish boys and girls in the required age range. The first social affair for this group has been scheduled for Saturday evening, September 7, and will be called "Calyso Joy." Admission is free and refreshments will be served. Dress is slacks and sport shirts for boys and skirts and sweaters for girls. Music will be provided by a live combo. The affair will be held in the Temple House, 95 South Mayfair avenue.

'APRON REVUE' A SELL-OUT FOR TEMPLE METHODIST GALS

In a kitchen setting, complete with "Butch" the parakeet vieing for the spotlight, the skit "A Day in Marge Brown's Kitchen" was presented Wednesday, at the annual "Apron Revue" of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Temple Methodist Church. The luncheon was a sell-out and the number of aprons received for the revue exceeded all expectations, the society reported.
In addition to the aprons received, material for more than 40 aprons was contributed, as well as donations totaling 17. The material and money will be used for making additional aprons by the apron sewing committee, which will meet at the church this Thursday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.
Mrs. Ole Fjeldmoe, bazaar chairman, and her committee, are endeavoring to get the donated material made into aprons as quickly as possible, in order that they may get started on items for the needlecraft and kitchen gadget booth. These latter items will be stressed at the Woman's Society meeting on September 18. Anyone who has aprons or material to turn in for the "Holiday Time" bazaar to be held on November 20 and 21, may leave them in the church office with Mrs. C. A. Richardson, church secretary.

The annual bazaar is the main fund-raising event of the year for the Society, to cover the missionary budget and general operating expenses. This year a portion of the receipts will be put into the building fund for the new educational wing.

'Everything Goes' In Sisterhood Rummage

"Everything goes," according to Barbara Silver, chairman of the Temple Judea Sisterhood rummage sale.
She urged Judeans to "give everything, but give something for the drive."
Saleable rummage will be picked up any Sunday morning. Persons with goods to donate should call the Temple office, PL 5-9463; Sanford Anixter, MO 4-8999; or Barbara Silver, LO 4-7177.
Church Mothers Offer Whist Party
The next whist party for Our Lady of Perpetual Help Mothers' club will be Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. Hand-made pillow slips and a delicious home made cake will be awarded in addition to the gifts going to the whist party winners, according to Mrs. Audrey Sallade, who is in charge of this month's program.

Westlake Announces 'Biggest' Drawing

Shoppers are picking up free tickets for one of the largest drawings ever to be held in the Westlake Shopping Center.
With five big prizes, headed by a Chevrolet sedan, purchased from Gateway Chevrolet, winners will receive a color television, $10 per month for one year and two $100 wrist watches.
According to Les Ritchie, president of the Westlake Business and Professional association, tickets may be obtained from any Westlake merchant without purchase or obligation. The drawing is to be held in October.
The Berkeley campus of the University of California and Golden Gate Park in San Francisco have splendid specimens of Western red cedar trees.

Broadmoor Church Selects Minister

The members and friends of the Broadmoor Presbyterian church will greet their new minister, the Rev. Herbert C. Tweedie, this Sunday.

Since February 1, Dr. William Harberts has been interim-pastor, while the pastor-seeking committee chose a candidate to present to the membership. The Rev. Tweedie was the congregation's unanimous selection.

The new pastor has purchased a home in Broadmoor, at 1116 Nimitz drive, where, with his wife Marjorie, and his three children, Penny, 13, Timmy, 12, and Jamie, 6, he will take up immediate residence to perform his ministerial duties.

The Rev. Tweedie was born in Berkeley, and is of an ecclesiastical family. His father, now retired, was a Presbyterian minister for 40 years. His brother, Tom Tweedie, is presently a Presbyterian minister of education in Sacramento. Before being selected as Broadmoor's new minister, he served as the pastor of the Roseville Presbyterian church.

Graduated from Occidental college in 1937, he attended

Court St. Mary Whist 'Debut' September 5

Court St. Mary, Catholic Daughters of America, will hold their first Whist game of the season on Thursday, September 5 at 8:30 p.m. in the Masonic Hall, 17 Hillcrest drive, Daly City, according to Georgiana Clark.

Mrs. Carl Rolland, grand regent, has appointed Mrs. Harvey Mumford whist chairman for the year. She will be assisted by members whose surnames begin with the letters "L" through "R." The public is invited to attend.

Officers and members of Court St. Mary will observe the 27th anniversary of their court on September 26 with a dinner party at Joe's of Westlake. Chairman of the evening is Miss Catherine Michelsen.

Baptist Church Will Host Temple Judea

The Temple Baptist church at 3355 Nineteenth avenue, will once again be host to Congregation Temple Judea for the forthcoming Holy Days. The seating capacity of the church has been increased to accommodate as many as possible.

Rabbi Reichert will assume the pulpit as spiritual leader, delivering outstanding religious messages to his congregation and guests.

A 12-voice choir with organ accompaniment will provide background music for the Holy Day chants.
Anyone interested in tickets, membership or further information regarding the High Holy Days should contact the Temple office, PL 5-9463.

BYA Goose Eggs 3 Opponents; 'Stars' Victims

Broadmoor Youth association and Bruce Hix, 16; three opponents, 0.

That was the total of the BYA's baseball conquests for the week, as the youth group's hurler Hix got in a decided but not unpleasant shutout rut.

Victims were: Tuesday, August 20—Sunset Whites, 2-0; Saturday, M. A. Tuffo Midgets, 5-0; and Sunday, Daly City All Stars, 9-0.

Tuesday's victory, notched by Hix' one-hitter, paved the way for the contest with the All Stars Sunday.

Hix struck out seven, walked two, while the loser, J. Stuckey, pitched a commendable game in allowing only six safeties, fanning three.

Big Double
John Vocke, Bruce Hix, Wayne Stoller and his brother, Allan, and Bill Caster hit singles, while Allan Contreras rattled a double that set up both runs.

It was the same story Saturday at Upper Noe park in the S. F. Junior Managers league, as the Tuffo midgets had goose eggs all over the place. Hix was a tiger again, striking out 12, walking one and handing out only four hits.

Catcher Larry Skinner's home run with two men on was the major blow for the BYAers. Larry Ward pounded a triple, while Vocke, Wayne and Allan Stoller and John Bennett rapped singles.

Sunday the best in the Daly City league were not good enough to match bats with the youth group, as Hix twirled a two-hitter, striking out a dozen and walking two All Stars.

13 Hits
On the other hand, the BYA nipped Stuckey of South Sunset for 13 very unlucky hits—unlucky for the All Stars. Contreras, scrappy BYA second baseman, started the ball game with an auspicious home run on the second pitch thrown.

Pitcher Hix wasn't satisfied with just registering his third shutout in a row, but had to play a slugger, as he blasted four hits in as many trips, including a grand slam blow in the fifth.

Vocke and Ward each got two for two, while the Stoller boys were consistent with singles, as were Bennett, Wayne Howell and Skinner.

Spencer Bader of Westlake Flying A and Floyd Byrum of San Pedro lunch got the only hits for the All Stars.

Coaches for the All Stars fricas were George Benson and Ed Pittson. This was the finale of the Daly City Recreation Midget league, and BYA couldn't have picked a better way to bow out.

Broadmoor will tackle hometown rival San Pedro lunch at 2 p.m. Saturday at Westlake park, where Hix will attempt to run his consecutive scoreless innings to 28.

BASEBALL BURLESQUE

Tribal 'Chieftains' Exchange Insults

Leaders of the municipal leagues that will engage in the September 8 baseball titanic at Marchbanks park were both slugger with either golf club or bat in hand, predicted that the outcome was as certain as the Patterson-Rademacher outspoken today in their optimism for victory.

CHIEF KENNEDY

CHIEF PETROCCHI
... Stolen Base Experts

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy's lads are working out daily at Marchbanks, while Cop Chief Roland A. Petrocchi's troops drill at the same steady schedule at Colma school.

Petrocchi, himself a heavy fight. "Not a whisper of a chance for the firemen," Petrocchi said.

"The traffic boys would have a better chance than Petrocchi's bush-leaguers," retorted the fire chieftain.

Seldom has there been such assurance on the part of two teams in a contest.

The oddsmakers, however, were prepared to peg the firemen slight favorites when Petrocchi arrested the whole ki-boodle of the betting people for failure to pay their federal wagering stamp.

"Besides," said De Petrocchi, "We're likely to be sentimental favorites anyway. But we won't tolerate any betting on the contest."

Scorekeepers are still perplexed about which team should be called the "home team" on the scoreboard.

Petrocchi claims the distinction for his lads, pointing out that the paid police department has been in existence longer than the paid firemen.

Kennedy would not waver, however, and insisted his smokestackers be called the hometowners. "The volunteers were here before the cops," he asserted.

One was commented that they wouldn't need scorekeepers anyway. "Get one of those experts from IBM and you'll come closer to keeping track of the score," he remarked.

But both chiefs insisted that there'll be no football score. Maybe more like basketball.

'OUR' VENTURI DOES IT AGAIN, UPS GOLF SWAG

Westlake's Ken Venturi carried out an earlier prophecy when he said he "might be hard to beat from now on" as he swept the Milwaukee Open golf championship last weekend with a 13-under par 267 for his second straight tournament victory.

Auto dealer Venturi, who resides here at 97 Forest Grove drive, picked up $8000 top prize in the 72-hole event to add to the $2800 award he annexed the previous week.

The young golfer, who just turned professional last November, has accumulated winnings in excess of $18,000 on the pro tour this year.

He is the only professional to win two major tournaments consecutively this year.

He and his wife, Connie, are expected to return to their Westlake home this week.

Jefferson Pair Shines As West Rallies Over East

21 'ROBIN HOODS' FIRE ARROWS IN TOURNEY HERE

Wednesday's archery tournament turned out to be successful as Westlake Park witnessed 21 enthusiastic children competing at this annual event.

Class A
The winners of the tournament were: Raymond Blair, Frankfort, 206; Peter Pollat, Westlake Park, 201; Larry Day, Marchbanks, 194.

Class B
Robert Beukers, Westlake Park, 183; Lee Lester, Westlake Park, 110; John Kirby, Colma school, 108.

Pat Weeden of Frankfort playground won the girls' division with a 75.

Two Jefferson gridiron graduates played a big part Friday in the West Bay's 20-6 victory over the East Bay in the 20-30 club's annual prep charity game at Kezar stadium.

A crowd of 12,000 fans saw end Mike Cloutier, erstwhile Daly City prep, take a 24-yard aerial from QB Mike Carson that launched a touchdown drive and broke a 6-6 first half deadlock.

Cloutier was also instrumental in the West's next drive, snaking in a 15-yard pass from

MIKE CLOUTIER
...Two Big Snags

Carson that brought his club within 18 yards of the East goal.

Guard Bill Riedstra, another Jefferson alumnus, performed journeyman chores on the front line.

Coach Hugh McWilliams observed that the sometimes erratic Cloutier was one of the biggest surprises on the West club, especially in their rejuvenated second half.

Cloutier's pass catching, along with the running of Gil Dowd, were cited by McWilliams as the big weapons in the West's offensive attack. Cloutier snagged four aeriels for a total of 61 yards to top all receivers.

The West was outplayed in the first half and was only able to hold the Easterners to a 6-6 stalemate because of an intercepted fumble that resulted in a touchdown.

Riedstra, although overshadowed by some more spectacular line work, made several sharp tackles and played a good portion of the game, mainly on defense. Near the final gun, Riedstra intercepted an East pass on the 40, ran it back six yards and the West drove to the 20 before time ran out.

GATORS OPEN WORKOUTS SEPT. 2; VERDUCCI SLATES DOUBLE SESSION

San Francisco State college opens its 1957 football practice sessions Monday, September 2, at 10 a.m., head football coach Joe Verducci announced today.

The Gator mentor and his two assistants, Line Coach Vic Rowen and End Coach Bill Harkness, will conduct double sessions in preparation for their nine game schedule and defense of their 1956 Far Western Conference crown.

The local eleven will practice in sweat suits in the morning and workout in full football gear in the afternoon periods.

Reporting back to the SFS squad for the 1957 season will be Little All-American Tackle Floyd Peters, All-FWC Fullback Bob Redrige, and the Sechor brothers, Halfback John Sochor and Quarterback Jim Sochor.

Peters will be playing his final season for the Gators. Verducci and staff consider him the best lineman in San Francisco State grid history and should be rated a top professional team prospect at the conclusion of the 1957 season.

During the past four years the 6'2", 225 lb. tackle has been named All-FWC in 1954, 1955, and 1956; Little All-Coast in 1955 and 1956; and Little All-American in 1956.

Fullback Redrige has been the Gator's "Mr. Dependable" for four years. In the Verducci T-formation plays Redrige punts, kickoffs, kicks field goals and points after touchdowns. Along with these chores he has been one of the top running backs in the FWC.

Halfback John Sochor, barring any injuries, should be one of the top running and scoring backs in the conference, according to Verducci. All-FWC in the 1954 and 1956 seasons, the eldest of the Sochor brothers was sidelined with injuries last year.

Jim Sochor returns to lead the 1957 Gator eleven at the quarterback post. Playing his second season, this "blonde bomber" has developed into a top-notch signal caller, passer and running back for the State eleven.

High Sierra Camps For Mateo County

After hearing a report and seeing a motion picture of a field trip made by Creed Haberlin, chairman of the county recreation and park commission, Ralph Shaw, county recreation director, and Frank Skillman, county planning director, the county board of supervisors authorized studies to continue on the possible acquisition of recreation and camping sites in the high Sierra for use of San Mateo county residents. The sites visited were located near a lake in Fresno county.

Haberlin stated to the board that the proposal to obtain the site would not lessen the recreation program in this county. The land the county seeks is owned by the federal government and can be leased at nominal cost.

The board has directed District Attorney Keith Sorenson to investigate legality of the county's leasing or purchasing the property.

DC Cops To Tune-up Vs. Broadmoor Sunday

In a tune-up for their September 8 contest with the DC firemen, local police will cross bats this Sunday with the Broadmoor gendarmes, in a contest starting at 10 a.m. at Marchbanks park.

In the event the field is occupied, the squads will move over to the Jefferson High school diamond.

Funds, Equipment Sought By P.A.L.

Donations to help finance the Police Athletic League were asked this week by the local police department.

The P.A.L. has raised $300 toward its goal of $2000 to finance youth athletic activities, most of this through sustaining and associate memberships.

Individual donations in any amount are now being sought from all Daly City residents, police said.

Donations of used athletic equipment are also asked.

Kick-off of the P.A.L. program will be the police-firemen baseball game September 8, after which a schedule of youth activities will be worked out.

An attempt is being made to secure high school facilities for a P.A.L. meeting place.

Colma Golf Pro Annexes Tourney

Larry Montez of Colma fired a 68 over the San Jose country club course Monday to win the pro division of the club's amateur tournament.

Les Lesser of South San Francisco aced the 185-yard tenth hole to finish second with a 69.

Montez, pro at the Colma Driving Range, was last year named to the Philippines Sports Hall of Fame.

DC Drugs Spanks Trio Of Weekend Opponents

Daly City Drugs horsehiders won three games over the weekend, clinching the San Francisco Recreation "D" league, and wrapping up the Daly City Junior league.

The third game was an extra, taking the South-Sunset Juniors 14-5 in the second of a double-header at Marchbanks Sunday.

Billy Ludwigsen pitched his eleventh win against one loss to shut out St. Stephens with two hits for a 17-0 score. Both hits against Billy were by Haran.

The Crighton-Krohn kids were sharp at the plate and on the bases, and made 17 hits count for as many runs. George Claus and Terry Christman each went three for five, and Barry Krohn, Mike O'Leary, Bill Hynes and Billy Hix each socked two safeties. This win clinched the "D" League for Tom Bournellis' boys, since Milano Inn will have to forfeit next Saturday's game.

Frank Dykes was a surprise starter against St. Gabriel's in the first game at Marchbanks Sunday, and held the Saints to two hits for the four innings he worked. Frank was wild in the third and let the Gab's score three runs, and Mike Lanthier took over the fourth, but was only able to get one man out while the Gab's picked up three more.

The Druggist's tallied five runs on five hits in the first, picked up one each in the second and third, and two more in the fourth. Claus walked to start the game, and Dykes beat out a bunt to put Claus on third with the hit and run. O'Leary hit to left scoring Claus, Hynes walked, and Christman socked one to right scoring Dykes. Ludwigsen kept it going with a single to deep third and Claus brought two more in on his second time up in the frame.

Ludwigsen lead off the third with an infield hit and was moved along by Danny Luciano beating out a perfect bunt. Hix scored Billy with a sacrifice. Krohn and O'Leary walked to open the fourth, then were driven in by Christman. Claus relieved Lanthier to finish out the game, allowing only one unearned run.

Terry Christman had quite a day in the second game, winning his fourteenth against one loss with a six hitter. He led at bat with four for five, one base cleaning triple for three runs batted in. O'Leary ran him a good second with three for five and two RBIs. Mike also had two stolen bases, but Claus topped him with three.

Mike Rovai was at bat five times, but had only one official time, walking three times, hit by pitcher once and whiffing the other. He scored one run, and made several plays both at short. Bruce Hix scored two runs without a time at bat after he replaced his brother in the sixth.

Radios And The Automobile

Popularity of radio continues to increase with the motorists of America. Latest available figures, according to the National Automobile Club, show that 47.2 per cent of all radio sets manufactured annually in the United States now are built specifically for automobiles.

This chunk of total radio production is more than twice what it was in 1947, when passenger cars used only 17.3 per cent.

Current output of auto radio sets has risen from 3.5 million in 1947 to 6.8 million in 1955, an all-time high for the indus-

New Truck Speed Law: 45 Is Limit

Motor truck operators in this area were asked today by Patrol Captain J. W. Kennedy to review thoroughly the new truck speed law which becomes effective in September.

"Starting September 11th a top speed limit of 45 miles an hour is placed on all motor trucks or truck tractors with three or more axles and any motor truck or truck tractor with any trailer or semi-trailer, or combination thereof," Captain Kennedy stated. "Although the new speed law does not become effective until September, truck operators should be prepared to heed the requirements and instruct their drivers accordingly."

"An extensive and continuing enforcement emphasis program will be implemented following a reasonable period of alerting the truck operators to the new law," the captain continued. "Truck operators desiring full information concerning this and other new traffic laws are urged to visit or phone the nearest office of the California Highway Patrol."

Home sets, on the other hand, have declined from 14 million to 5.6 million annually in the same period.
